Access from the south via the M4, junction 9, and the A404, brings you to the Bisham roundabout.

Take this, 1st exit, go through the pretty village and follow the bends 'til you cross the famous Marlow Bridge into Marlow High Street.

At the top turn right into Spittal Street, and at the end of this turn left into Dean Street.

Up, past the Police Station on your right, speed camera on your left and Seymour Park Road, is the 2nd turning on the right. Granny Anne's (number 54) is about half-way along on the right.

From the north take junction 4 off the M40 and head south down the A404.

Come off at the first opportunity (big roundabout, 3rd exit) and follow signs to Marlow 'til you see an Esso Service Station on your right.

Immediately after this turn right into Maple Rise and after only maybe 100 yards, cross over the crossroads into Oak Tree Road. Up this and Seymour Park Rd is the second turning on the left.

Granny Anne's (number 54) is about half-way along, on the left.

Just pull onto the gravel frontage and ring the bell.
